Title: “Treasure Principle”
Text: Malachi 3:6-12

Target: Radical Generosity is not a destination, but a direction of living life with a divine intentionality of investment. Therefore, a journey of joyful giving begins with a systematic approach to establishing consistent reproducible habits worth imitating.

“I have held many things in my hands and I have lost them all. But whatever I have placed in God’s hands, that I still possess” - Martin Luther

Notice: “The Treasure Principle” of passing on a heritage of generosity, not just an inheritance of generous things, begins with fully embracing God saying to you:

I. I CAN BE:
Malachi 3:6-7

- Name of God (6): “The LORD”: Jehovah-Faithful to Fulfill

II. I CAN BE:
Malachi 3:7-10

- Consequences of Ignorance (7): “But you say, ‘How shall we return?”
- Criticism of Integrity (8-9): “Will man rob God?”
- Challenge of Investment (10): “Bring the full tithe”

III. I CAN BE:
Malachi 3:11-12

- Posture of Defense (11): “I will rebuke the devourer for you”
- Place of Delight (12): “then all the nations will call you blessed”

Take Away:

- I affirm God’s full ownership of me and everything entrusted to me.
- I choose to set aside the first fruits of my time, treasure, and talents.
- I recognize that I cannot take earthly treasures to heaven; therefore I will seek to lay up heavenly treasures.
- I will ask God to teach me to give sacrificially to His purposes.

One Food Pak box will feed a family of 4 for 1 week - our church filled and collected 1,050 Food Paks! Our CBC Kids from Gold Canyon & Borgfeld were taught the importance of loving your neighbor, and how 1 quarter = 1 meal with CHF - they collected $2,299.92 with their Coin Paks...that’s 9,199 meals!
