Title: The Testimony of the Table

Text: 2 Samuel 9:1-13

Target: The table of God’s grace is the place where stories are shared of the scars that we bare covered in the linen cloth of His mercy. It is more than an invitation; it is a reservation that holds your space by the chorus “Amazing Grace!” The table of grace is a place for those to sit in order to leave their shame, because the King knows your pain, calls you by name, and heals you to walk again.

MISSION MOMENT

This July, CBC sent out three teams to Peru! One team joined several others from around the US to provide eye care for the people of Ayacucho, Peru. While there, they saw over 3,800 patients, over 2,000 glasses were dispensed and over 100 eye surgeries were performed. The other two teams worked with Casa Del Aguila in Limatambo, Peru and the surrounding communities there. These teams spent time ministering to 51 orphans, orphanage employees, members of four different church communities, several who were ill and injured, and many students through English tutoring, cooking, cleaning and playing soccer. They also had the opportunity to deliver “Bags of Blessings” to a community high in the Andes called Chonta. Through all three teams the gospel was shared and lived out to the widows, orphans and many more all in the name of Jesus!
