Title: Life-Verse
Text: Philippians 1:21

Target: There is a battle cry within all of us that goes unheard, unsaid, and unannounced at times. However, this battle cry serves as the motivation, the cadence in our soul that keeps us focused, fixed, and faced in the right direction seeking to live a life of significance! The question is, what is that motivation?

- “For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain” (ESV)
- “Alive, I’m Christ’s messenger; dead, I’m his bounty. Life versus even more life! I can’t lose” (The Message)
- “For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better” (NLT)
- “To me the only important thing about living is Christ, and dying would be profit for me” (New Century Version)

Earlier this month, CBC sent a missions team to Costa Rica to work in several churches that are apart of Iglesia Renacer, CBC’s partner organization. The team of seventeen ministered to kids and adults through many different opportunities. They visited an Indian Reservation in the Rain Forest, with the Cabecar tribe. The team painted their church, and provided a pop-up medical clinic. Both activities drew many from the tribe to receive God’s love. The team also went to an area of Costa Rica that is high-risk for drug use, teenage pregnancies, kids from broken homes and school dropouts. They got to throw two “block parties” in which they had food, music, face painting, and bible teaching. God moved in mighty ways on this trip and many cannot wait for CBC to return!
