TITLE: “Buckle Up”
TEXT: Ephesians 6:14: “Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth (gird up your loins with truth)...”

TARGET: A life based in truth is a life that is tethered to truth, thus allowing every thought, belief, action to be filtered and applied in what is good, honorable and right.

TEACHING PRINCIPLES: We now shift in the series from talking about the Scope of Warfare, Schemes in Warfare, and the Strength through Warfare, to now the Safeguard in Spiritual Warfare. The Battle Armor begins with...THE BELT OF TRUTH!

I. _____________________ OF THE BELT: “fastened or girded” (Vs. 14)
a. Supported the Core: Enabling Stability
b. Shielded the Crotch: Enforcing Security

II. _____________________ OF THE BELT: “on the belt” (Vs. 14)
a. Place for Useful Tools: Causing Accessibility
b. Positioned to Uphold the Tunic: Creating Maneuverability

III. _____________________ OF THE BELT: “truth” (Vs. 14)
a. Allows Perspective: John 8:32: “you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free”
b. Anchors Purpose: Psalm 86:11: “Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your truth; unite my heart to fear your name”
c. Affords Peace: John 16:13: “When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth.”

Take Away: Glean and gather while we hear Caleb’s testimony of how the phrase “But God” held him together as the belt of truth in the darkest of days.

MISSION MOMENT

Working with unreached people groups has its challenges, especially when trekking for days to encounter those living high up in the Himalayan mountains. A CBC team just returned from such a trip in Nepal. They have come back with a much larger picture of who God is and how he is working on the other side of the planet. Despite being a closed country and not being allowed to preach the Gospel openly, His message is still penetrating the hearts and minds of the Nepali people.
