▶▶ MISSION MOMENT

1 Hope for Kids (formerly 4 Kids of South Texas), a foster and adopt organization in San Antonio, held its first volunteer training this past weekend for individuals seeking to get involved in ways other than fostering a child. Did you know there are many opportunities to support foster children and their families? Small, genuine gestures can make a lasting impact for everybody. You can get involved by cooking a meal for a new foster or adoptive family, providing respite care or babysitting for a few hours, delivering diapers and other needed items, or simply by writing a note of encouragement. As a community of believers, we're called to rally around our neighbors, individuals, and families within the community. It takes a village to raise a child - relationships and support matter! Where, and to whom, is God calling you? Visit cbcmissions.com for opportunities to serve.
