IT’S Summer AT CBC!

MISSION MOMENT

A CBC MEMBER STORY: This past June, Sean and his daughter Macy attended CBC’s Brazil Mission Trip. While in Brazil the pair saw God do some incredible things, but Sean shared one particular story that stood out to him: “A neat moment was as we were listening to the testimony of one of the cooks, he shared how he was also a physical therapist and worked for a local professional soccer team. Several months back he had been unable to travel with the team and got one of his friends to go in his place. Tragically during the team travels there was a terrible accident and everyone including the coaches and trainers were all killed. In the aftermath of this tragic event, he had really been struggling, but was grateful for our team reminding him that God is real, God loves him, and is with him through this journey. While sharing his story, my daughter was making a paper ring with cards. At the end of the young man sharing his testimony, my daughter walked up to give him the ring as a gift and to tell him how sorry she was for his loss. He was so touched by this simple, but thoughtful gift that he wore the ring for the rest of our trip.”
