TITLE: Followship: The Flip Side of Leadership

TEXT: Luke 5:11: "And when they brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him."

TARGET: A leader is not a leader unless there is a follower. What made Jesus worth following? Knowing these attributes makes us better leaders for Jesus while seeking to be better followers of Jesus.

I. Followship requires a ____________________:
   “And he said to all, ‘If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.’” Luke 9:23
   A. Consider the Choice: (Vision/Values/Virtues)
   B. Count the Cost: (Time/Energy/Resources & Relationships)
   C. Compare the Consequences: (Output/Outcomes)

II. Followship reveals ____________________:
   “Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, ‘I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.’” John 8:12
   A. Commitment to Concede: Followship is not just Compliance, it is ____________________!
   B. Courage to Conform: Followship is not just Submission, it is ____________________!
   C. Cause to Carry: Followship is not just Obedience, it is ____________________!

III. Followship results in ____________________:
   “After this he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth. And he said to him, ‘Follow me.’ And leaving everything, he rose and followed him.” Luke 5:27-28
   A. Core Conviction: “Not just ideas, but ideas that hold you.” - Unknown
      i. Principles: (Absolute Truth)
      ii. Policies: (People over Paper)
      iii. Platform: (Identification)
   B. Consistent Character: “Not just who you are when no one is looking, it is who you are when everybody is looking.” - Unknown
   C. Clear Calling:
      i. Time is limited for you.
      ii. Not everyone is going to like you.
      iii. Relationships are important to you.
      iv. Mission is bigger than you.

TAKE AWAY: In order to be the best leader, you have to be the best follower. The question is not only “are you a leader worth following?,” but “is the leader you are following worth me following?”

MISSION MOMENT
LIVE LOCAL STORY: This weekend, several hundred individuals served 8 local schools, revitalized 5 city parks, planted and harvested fresh food, and packed 5,000 pounds of beans, 23 pallets of toys, and 4,000 meals for San Antonio families. Check out stories from this weekend by searching #CBCLiveLocal on all social media platforms. It doesn’t have to stop there though! We invite you to be on mission in your everyday places - your neighborhood, workplace, school, gym, and coffee shop, in an effort to display Christ’s love as a neighbor, co-worker, classmate, and patron. Take “The Live Local Challenge” and share your experience with us. Post a photo and your story on social media with #CBCLiveLocal or email livelocal@cbc.email.
