

FAMILY DISCIPLESHIP GUIDE

July 16th & 17th

We're over halfway through the summer! Hopefully this summer has afforded you and your family some more intentional time and rest together.

If this is your first ever experience with the Family Discipleship Guide, the goal here is to provide you a template for conversation around the dinner table or whenever you have spiritual conversations as a family and to breakdown the message in a way that leads to action and obedience.

This Week's Message: "Good God Almighty"

This week we continue our Minor Prophets series by looking at the book of Nahum. Pastor Ed walks us through the importance of what you believe when you think of how God views you.

Celebrate: Have some fun!

- With just about a month left of summer, what is a goal or dream you and your family want to achieve before school starts?

Accountability: Let's follow up from last week.

- How did you show mercy last week? Share about a specific moment.

Listen: What does God's Word say?

- Take 5 minutes to watch this video. The Bible Project is incredibly helpful to understand the big picture of Nahum! Watch the video here.
- What stands out to you from this weekend's message and/or this video?
- How do you reconcile the righteous anger and immeasurable power of God with his patience and forgiveness?

Live It Out: What is God saying to me?

- What does God want to change in you in order to look more like him?

Equip: Take it further.

- We want our city to know this same truth--that God desires to rescue and redeem all humanity. That's why we have LOVE SATX coming up.
